DR. T. R. LITTLE DIES SUDDENLY

Passed Away Yesterday at Five O'clock.

Asthma Trouble With Complications of Lungs Believed to Have Caused Death —Complained of Feeling Bad Yesterday Morning and Was Found In His Room Unconscious Yesterday Afternoon—Death a Shock to Greensboro.

Greensboro people were greatly shocked yesterday afternoon to learn of the sudden death of Dr. Thomas R. Little, which occurred yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at his home, 100 College Place, and the sad news brought gloom to many a heart. Dr. Little had been unwell for several days, but only his close friends knew of the fact and they had no idea that his condition was serious. His death is believed to have been caused by asthma with probable complications of the lungs.

Dr. Little's death is made peculiarly sad by reason of the circumstances. Mrs. Little with their three children is visiting at the home of Dr. Little's brother and sister at Little's Mills, where he expected to join them in a few days to spend Thanksgiving Day together at the old family homeplace. Mrs. Little was notified at once of her husband's death, but she cannot reach the city before noon today.

On Monday night Dr. Little complained of feeling very bad and on yesterday morning he phoned his sister, Mrs. A. W. McAlister, with whom he was taking his meals during his family's absence, that he did not feel well and did not care for breakfast, but he expected to be down for dinner. At dinner time he had not come and Mr. McAlister went to his home on College Place only to find him very ill and in an unconscious condition. He called Dr. Edmund Harrison, Dr. Little's office partner, but he was out of the city and could not be reached. However, he succeeded in reaching at once Drs. M. S. Miles and W. J. Richardson and later Dr. C. W. Moseley. The physicians did everything possible to render him relief, but he grew rapidly worse and died in about three hours.

Dr. Little was great sufferer from asthma and had an operation a year or more ago which relieved him greatly. Of late he had been having attacks again and contemplated another operation. He was suffering from this complaint recently and the physicians assign this and probable complications of the lungs as the cause of his death.

Besides Mrs. Little and three children, one son and two daughters, Dr. Little is survived by two brothers and two sisters, Mr. Rufus Little and Miss Nan Little, of Little's Mills; Rev. Lacy Little, of China, and Mrs. A. W. McAlister, of this city. He was 36 years of age.

The funeral arrangements had not been made last night, but the funeral will probably be held Thursday from the Church of the Covenant, the interment to follow in Green Hill cemetery.

Dr. Little was an active and useful elder in the Church of the Covenant and was unselfish in his devotion to his church, his patients and his friends. Probably no physician in the city was more beloved by his patients than was Dr. Little, who was ever ready to render assistance to those in need of medical attention and who ever considered the welfare of his patients rather than his own. In his home he was a loving husband and a kind and affectionate father, ever willing to make any sacrifice for those he loved. He will be greatly missed by his church, by the people that he ministered unto, and by a host of friends who esteemed him for his sterling worth, splendid ability and noble Christian character, but most of all will he be missed by his family.

Dr. Little had served for years as medical director of the Life Insurance Department of the Southern Life & Trust Company and to his efficient and thorough work in no small degree is the success of the company due. In addition to his work with this company Dr. Little had a large practice throughout the city and was ever anxious to alleviate the sufferings of his fellow men. In fact his friends often urged him to take a rest, but his duty to his patients he regarded as of more importance than his own wellbeing. Truly he will be missed in the homes in which he has ministered.

Probably no man had more friends than did Dr. Little, quiet and retiring, yet kindly disposed, whom he numbered his friends by his acquaintances. And those who knew him best were the ones that loved him most. No sacrifice was too great if he could by making it render assistance to a friend. The hearts of hundreds of Greensboro people are saddened this morning on account of the passing of this truly great and good man.

DECLINE IN PRICE OF MEATS

Market Men Attribute Fall to the Enormous Corn Crop and the Consequent Low Price of the Cereal.

New York, Nov. 15.—Reports from various parts of the country indicating a fall in the price of meats are reflected by similar reports from local dealers. They say the decline has already begun, the wholesale price of beef having gone off on an average of three-quarters of a cent in the last week.

One of the leading dealers said that sirloin steak that had brought 24 cents a pound was now calling for 22 cents. Porterhouse steak, he said, was down 3 cents a pound, selling now at 25 cents. Fresh pork products, however, show the greatest drop the market dealers selling cuts for roasting at 18 cents a pound that have within a short time been bringing 22 cents. Lard is down 2 cents a pound, the price yesterday being 18 cents. The best grades of ham and bacon on the contrary, show hardly any change. This is accounted for by the length of time it takes in curing. The dealers say the stocks of cured meats are very light and it will naturally be some time before the increased production of hogs offsets this condition.

The market men attribute the relief from high prices to the enormous corn crop and the consequent low price of the cereal. Low prices of feed combined with the past high prices of pork, they say, have resulted, as was expected, in an increased raising of hogs.

FELIX LOWE AGAIN

Young Man Who Recently Completed Sentence on Roads Arrested Yesterday For Stealing Grip.

Felix Lowe, a young white man who recently completed a four months' sentence on the roads for stealing a bicycle from Mr. W. L. Pegg, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Officers Iseley and Glenn on the charge of stealing a suit case from Will Dellinger. He will be given a hearing in Municipal Court this morning.

Dellinger, who had been at work at the Pomona Cotton Mills, was going to his home in Hickory. He left his suit case, containing two suits of clothes, in the station while he went out to get a lunch. When he returned the suit case was gone. He notified the police and suspicion at once rested on Lowe, who had been seen with Dellinger. It was learned that he had left the station with a suit case and the officers phoned to Pomona only to learn that Lowe was trying to get his pay. The superintendent was asked to put him off until the officers could arrive, which he did. The suspect offered no resistance and readily gave over the suit case, in which were found the suits of clothes and other articles belonging to Dellinger.

Lowe seems to be an intelligent young fellow about 19 years of age, but evidently has a mania for stealing.

MISSIONARY SOCIAL.

Mrs. O. J. Howard Entertains W. M. S. of Forest Avenue Baptist Church—Interesting Papers Read—Refreshments Served.

Mrs. O. J. Howard was at home Tuesday afternoon to the Woman's Missionary Society of Forest Avenue Baptist church, about thirty members being present.

The following very interesting papers were read: "Problems for American Christians," by Mrs. Hobbs; Vandyke's "Legend of Service," by Mrs. R. G. Kendrick; a paper on "Woman's Influence in Disseminating Missionary Knowledge and Contributions," by Mrs. S. F. Johnson.

After the program was concluded, the hostess served a delicious salad course; and the afternoon was spent most delightfully and with much interest and profit to all present.

LARGE AUDIENCE ENJOYS CONCERT

Varied Program by Four Talented Artists.

Second Attraction In Lyceum Course One of the Best of Its Kind Ever Given In Greensboro—Bell Ringing Feat Especially Enjoyable As Was the Solo Work and the Closing Number, "The Lost Chord."

The Parland-Newhall Company were greeted last evening at the Smith Memorial building by an unusually large and appreciative audience, this being the second of a series of attractions being given for the season.

The Parland-Newhall Company comprises four male musical artists of unusual talent and versatility of attainments; they turn readily from their several instruments to vocal selections and parts, and vice versa. The classical numbers are performed with a high degree of skill, and in their rendition of humorous selections they do not fail to afford genuine pleasure and amusement.

The opening number was a vocal quartet, "Annabel Lee." This selection called forth tremendous applause to which the singers responded with two encores. This was followed by a brass quartet in a selection from "The Prince of Pilsen." Turning at once from the horns they gave a rendition of the "Melody of Love," by Englemann, on the bells. This feat of bell-ringing is the most unique part of the performance and requires much training and dexterity. The bells stand upright on the table just as an ordinary dinner bell, and require to be picked up as rapidly as called for in the short space of time between one note and another. They are arranged in all sizes on a table, and the entire company takes part in the performance. The wonder is that they do not become confused and either take up a wrong bell or set another down at such a time as to destroy the melody. The bell selection "Sunday Morning In a Large City" was especially fine, this being an imitation of chimes as they peal forth such well-known hymns as "Jesus Lover of My Soul," "Abide with Me," and other well-known sacred melodies.

The baritone and tenor solos were well received and deserve favorable comment, but one of the very finest selections was the "Prison Scene" from "Il Trovotore," in the performance of which there were used six instruments beside the voices. Mr. Newhall took the part of Maurico in the tenor solo. "Ah, I have sighed to rest me," and was accompanied alternately by the instruments and the voice of the other artists. Il Trovotore is a most popular opera, and the Prison Scene is always enjoyed when well rendered; and on last evening it was particularly well received on account of the unusual variety of instruments employed as well as of the skill displayed on the part of the performers.

The closing number was the "Lost Chord," by Sullivan, sung by the company. Perhaps no part of the program was more enjoyed, although to an acute ear the deeper voices may have seemed a little heavy for Mr. Newhall who has the part of first tenor. Nevertheless, they are a wonderfully talented set of musicians and the manner and ease with which the gentleman mentioned attacked and held that high C near the close of the number more than compensated for any supposed fault in harmony or blending of voices.

Greensboro people will perhaps not enjoy a more delightful evening of entertainment throughout the season.

Special Train To Raleigh.

The Southern Railway will operate a special train to Raleigh this morning, leaving here at 8:45 o'clock, on account of the Aviation meet under the auspices of the News and Observer. The fare for the round trip, including admission to the fair grounds where the meet will be held, is only $3.15. A number of Greensboro people who have never seen a flying machine will go down to witness the flights.

Conference Tonight.

An adjourned session of the Fourth Quarterly conference of the Christian church will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the church. Several matters of importance will come up and it is important that every members be present if possible.

THE CONFERENCE OF METHODISTS

First Session Will be Held This Morning.

Large Number of Ministers and Delegates Have Arrived To Attend Sessions—Presiding Elders and Bishop Hendrix Met Yesterday Afternoon—Much Interest In the Appointments—Conference One of Strongest in the Church.

Winston-Salem, Nov. 15.—Ministers and delegates are arriving on every train for the sessions of the Western North Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church, South, which body will meet in Centenary church tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock. This afternoon the presiding elders of the district and Bishop Hendrix held a meeting to arrange the order of business and to nominate the several committees. Tonight the presiding elders met with the Board of Missions to go over the report of that body and to make recommendations to conference.

It is probable that no afternoon sessions will be held the first two or three days, the time in the afternoon being taken up with committee and board meetings. There will be anniversary meetings held every evening in the interest of the various connectional interests of the church. Most of these meetings will be addressed by connectional officers.

The clerical and lay members of the conference represent a church membership of 89,631 within the territory of this conference. Last year there was added to the membership 5,529 on profession of faith and 5,579 on certificate, and it is expected that the reports of the pastors to be submitted this week will show a decided increase in members this year.

Among the most interesting features of the business to be transacted during the conference sessions are the reports of the preachers concerning the spiritual condition of the church, and the reports of the boards and committees of the conference with reference to the contributions to the various interests of the church. The total amount contributed in the conference last year was $474,571.9. Of this amount $146,150.60 was paid on the salaries of the preachers in charge; $18,175.47 on the salaries of presiding elders; $20,413.19 to foreign missions; $14,223.49 to domestic missions; $9,008.29 to the Children's Home; $7,537.42 to church extension; $10,046.86 to conference claimants; $2,689.90 to bishops' fund; $687.67 to the American Bible Society, and $238,119.89 to other purposes.

This conference is one of the strongest in the church, and on account of the healthful territory included in its bounds it is one of the most popular of the 45 conferences in the church. The conference was organized in 1890, and during the 21 years of its history it has grown rapidly. The membership at present consists of 235 preachers in full connection, and 18 young ministers on trial. There are 14 who will ask for admission on trial at this session. There are also 12 local preachers who are acting as supplies in the conference. The lay membership consists of 44, each district being allowed 4 lay representatives. There are 11 districts in the conference, and there is a probability that a new district will be formed at this session of the conference, thus adding one more member to the cabinet. If the new district is formed, it will likely be made from a part of the Winston and a part of the Mount Airy districts.

The call of the twentieth question, "Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration?" is the first question called during the conference, first with reference to the presiding elders, and then with reference to the preachers in the different districts, each presiding elder answering for the men in his district. No preacher can submit his report or be appointed to work for another year until this question has been answered in the affirmative.

During the year just closed only three members of the conference have died—Rev. J. N. Huggins, Rev. R. G. Barrett, and Rev. H. F. Chreitzberg, D. D. A service in memory of these ministers will be held on Sunday afternoon.

Throughout the conference session the minds of the members of the body and the members of the churches which they represent are centered upon the appointments of the preachers next year. The four-year "time limit" will compel 14 of the preachers in this conference to be changed to other appointments at this session, but that does not mean that only 14 changes will occur. Judging from the before-conference rumors as to the appointments for next year, a considerable "shaking up" is looked for in the appointments next year. It often happens that the necessity for moving one pastor is the occasion for the moving of a dozen or more, in order to get the right man for the right place. No one of the eleven presiding elders has served his present district four years, but it does not follow there will be no changes in the cabinet this year.

Much interest is felt concerning the rumor that several of the members of this conference will be transferred to other conferences this year, and that several members will be received by transfer from other conferences into this. It is known that a good deal of transferring is taking place in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, this year, and while this is in perfect keeping with the policy of the church, it is a feature that is always watched with special interest. It is believed that the transfer system will touch more than one of the leading appointments in this conference this year.

This is the third time the conference has been held in Winston-Salem; the first time it met here was in 1892, and Bishop Hendrix presided at that session also; the second was in 1898, at which time Bishop O. P. Fitzgerald presided. Winston-Salem is known as a most delightful meeting place, and every session of the conference held here is anticipated with special interest and pleasure.

Bishop Hendrix.

Bishop Eugene R. Hendrix, the presiding officer of the conference, is a native of Missouri, and in that state he has spent most of his life. He was elected to the Episcopacy at the General Conference of 1890, and is recognized as one of the ablest men in that body. He was president of Central College, Missouri, at the time he was elected bishop. As a man, a preacher and presiding officer, Bishop Hendrix is popular, and he possesses that natural culture and refinement which always mark the true gentleman, and which renders him desirable in the life of the home and the church.

Secretary of Conference.

The first business which the conference will transact will be the election of secretary, and there is no doubt that Rev. W. L. Sherrill, who has filled this position so satisfactorily and so efficiently for the past seventeen years, will be the choice again of the body. He is careful with regard to every detail of his work and is recognized as one of the best secretaries of a conference in the church.

W. K. MERRICK CAUGHT.

Believed To Be Man Wanted in Greensboro on Charge of Absconding With Firm's Money.

W. K. Merrick, a white man, is being held in Canton, O., for officers in Elijah, Ga., where he is wanted on the charge of obtaining money under false pretense. Merrick is believed to be the man wanted in Greensboro on the charge of absconding with a sum of money belonging to the firm with which he was connected. Chief of Police Neelley has wired for photographs of the defendant and if he is the right man requisition papers will be secured and an officer sent after Merrick.

Merrick left the city suddenly about two years ago, carrying with him some $1,500 in cash belonging to the Southern Collar and Bridle Company, of which firm he was manager. Soon after he left the company was forced into bankruptcy, the loss of the large sum of money making a large breach in the company's financial standing. Since he left no word was heard from him until within the past few days, despite the fact that the officers made diligent efforts to locate him.

Prominent Couple To Wed.

Tonight at 8:30 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church Miss Sadie Dick will become the bride of Mr. Cummins Mebane. Following the ceremony a reception will be given at the home of Mrs. S. L. Gilmer, the bride's grandmother. Following the rehearsal last evening Mrs. C. G. Wright entertained the bridal party at an informal luncheon at her home on North Elm street.

LEINSTER MADE ADJT. GENERAL

Appointed to Succeed Late J. F. Armfield.

Will At Once Enter Upon Duties of His Office—Has Been In Military Service Since He Was Fourteen Years Old—Was Closely Associated With General Armfield—First Dressed Hogs of Season on Market.

Raleigh, Nov. 15.—Robert L. Leinster succeeds the late General J. F. Armfield as adjutant general of the North Carolina National Guard, the commission having been issued to Col. Leinster this afternoon by Governor Kitchin. Col. Leinster will take the oath of office at once and take up the work of the office, a pressing duty awaiting the adjutant general being a call upon all the captains in the state for detail reports from their companies and the preparation of the annual report that will soon be over due if this work is not pressed with special dispatch.

Adjutant General Leinster entered the military service at 14 years old, being now 33 years old. He was first drummer for the Statesville company and served as private, corporal and sergeant until December, 1897, most of the time under the late General Armfield. Then he became regimental quartermaster sergeant under General Armfield. He volunteered for the Spanish-American war coming out of that conflict with the rank of second lieutenant, advancing from regimental quartermaster sergeant and regimental sergeant major under General Armfield. When his regiment was mustered out at the close of the war he was elected first lieutenant of the Statesville company upon reorganization as Company F, First regiment. Then in 1900 he was elected captain of the company. His next advancement was to regimental adjutant. In 1905 he was advanced to lieutenant colonel and assistant adjutant general of the first brigade and, in 1907, detailed by Gov. Glenn at the quest of General Armfield for duty in the adjutant general's office in Raleigh. He was closely associated with General Armfield in the military service for fifteen years. He was for ten years the chief of staff for the distinguished soldier whom he now succeeds.

The first dressed hogs of the season brought to the city by farmers for sale were driven up to the city market this morning and sold within a very short time at 15 1-2 cents per pound. The young farmer who brought them seemed mighty well pleased and prospective buyers who hesitated to "skin out" the price demanded for the tempting looking country pork stood by and watched with amazement the rapid sale of the pigs to other buyers.

IN MUNICIPAL COURT.

One Larceny Case Disposed of Yesterday —Judgment in Gambling Case Amended.

Bertha Slade, colored, was arraigned before Judge Eure in Municipal court yesterday morning on the charge of larceny. She was found guilty, judgment being suspended on payment of costs during her good behavior. She promised to appear in court every thirty days for a year to show that she had been behaving.

In the gambling case against Ike Hall and Sam Crow, who were sentenced to sixty days each on the county roads on Monday, Judge Eure amended his judgment by allowing them to pay a fine of $15 each and costs, this being done on account of their families. In the case against Hall, in which he was found guilty of carrying a pistol, he was allowed to pay a fine of $20 and costs in lieu of the ninety-day road sentence.

A Reward For Offender.

Chief of Police Neelley yesterday offered a reward of $25 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the party or parties that turned in the false alarm from box 27 Monday night at 12:30 o'clock. It is a hazardous undertaking to drive a wagon at full tilt along the streets at night and Chief Neelley is determined to bring the offender to justice. Fire Chief Fred Taylor also offers a reward of $25 for the arrest of the "alarm fakir," as does President J. B. Dudley, of the A. & M. College.

INFLAMED KIDNEYS

Medical writers declare it incurable after the sixth month whether albumenous or not.

The average man prefers to think of it as "kidney trouble" and lets it go but the census shows this appalling fact—out of 63,000 deaths from kidney troubles the last census year over nine-tenths of them (58,000) took the form called "Bright's Disease" although it is quite probable that nine-tenths of these up to the last moment thought of it as and called it "kidney trouble" when as a matter of fact the only possible hope laid through a specific for Bright's Disease.

There never was one until Fulton worked out his Renal emollient (Fulton's Renal Compound.)

Since then inflammation of the kidneys whether albumenous or not or whether called "kidney trouble" or "Bright's Disease" or whether six months or six years old commonly yields.

If you have had kidney trouble over six months no matter what you call it it is the only hope. Efficiency 87 per cent where patients do not wait until bedridden although some of them recover. It can be had in Greensboro at the Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

ELECTRIC BITTERS THE BEST FOR BILIOUSNESS AND KIDNEYS.

PART OF HIS SPINE CUT OUT IMPROVES

Surgeons Say Cycle Racer Thought to be Fatally Injured Will Now Recover.

New York World.

Surgeons and physicians in New Jersey and in New York are unusually interested in the case of Roy S. Pascall, a young and daring motorcycle racer of Newark, who was so seriously injured in a collision in a race meet at the Velodrome board track, in Newark, on September 5, that his life was despaired of for weeks. He lay unconscious for more than two weeks, and when he became conscious he was mentally unbalanced for another long period, and there was fear that he would never fully recover.

His mind gradually cleared up, however, and then it was found that, while all his external and internal injuries had apparently healed, there was serious paralysis of the left arm, which was due to an injury to the spinal column. His brother, Dr. Thomas Pascall, of Newark, and several surgeons and physicians who had been active in the case finally decided that a delicate operation would be necessary if the paralysis were to be corrected, and a few weeks ago the patient was removed to the New York Hospital, where a section of the bone which was pressing upon the spinal cord was removed. The chief operating surgeon was Dr. A. S. Taylor, and the operation was a success. A week ago last Saturday the young man wah removed to his home, at No. 254 Washington avenue, Newark, and he is improving in a manner which gives hope of his complete recovery.

While there is as yet no perceptible lessening of the paralysis in his arm, it is declared by the physicians, who are watching him closely, that within from two to four months there will come a change and he will have the entire use of the arm.

Since the operation for the removal of a portion of his spinal column he has been examined and studied by some of the leading specialists and surgeons in the country, and they are united in the opinion that his case is one of the most remarkable in surgical history in this country.

LITTLE STORIES OF MARRIED MEN

Baltimore Evening Sun.

Men commit matrimony for many reasons, but one of the most original which has come to the ears of this page lately was described in a sad tale told by a color-blind man.

"Once I was a happy bachelor," said he to a select audience, "but my infirmity drove me to take a wife. Tell you how it was. In the old days I bought my own clothes, of course, and just as naturally I dresed myself. Time and time again I would choose shirts, neckties and socks and put them on, and start off well pleased with myself.

"On the car going down town I frequently observed that the feminine portion of the travelers were gazing at me in astonishment. Sometimes a rude masculine one would guffaw after giving me a long, strong look. And I would be lost in wonder until I reached my own office where some of my confreres would cry out sharply when he saw me: Say, old chap, aren't you coming it rather strong. I never saw anyone wear a red necktie with a yellow shirt and a blue suit before."

"The end came suddenly one day when some girls, sitting across a car from me, giggled at my socks. They were nice enough socks—silk, with ground of one shade and a raised flower in another tint.

"When I reached the office I went to one of the fellows. 'Is there anything the matter with my hosiery?' I asked.

"He looked at them and roaded.

"Aren't they all right stockings?' I inquired in a rage. They cost a pretty penny, I know that.

"'They are all right in their way,' avz,a i'"f is cnqg,oCii egist1 t,o' n' said he, 'but it is not usual in this workaday and commonplace world to wear a sock ornamented with red flowers on one foot and a sock ornamented with blue flowers on the other. What is known as unanimity in hosiery is regarded as proper unless one is masquerading as a king's fool.'

"After that I considered setting up a valet, but valets are looked on as an affectation in this country, especially when a chap has an income of less than $50,00 a year, so after I tried one—a colored man who didn't know any more about colors than I did—I gave up the project.

"It was then that I made up my mind I must marry. There seemed nothing else to do. So I went to see a girl I had known for years. 'Mabel,' said I, 'can you distinguish colors?'

"'I hope so,' she replied. 'I have sold a number of miniatures I have painted, and I trust there was neither blue hair nor pink eys in the number.'

"'Then marry me,' I suggested.

"So she married me. She has told me since that she did not consider my proposal at all a flattering one and that she felt a nurse could have done for me what I wished her to do, but the fact remains that she married me and that never since my wedding day have I gone out wearing colors that screamed at each other. I am now a properly clothed person, and my greens and blues harmonize wonderfully."

So, while men marry women for many reasons, this really seems the most original of all.

DAY 762. PHONES NIGHT 1442

A Reformer

By SARAH BRICE VAUGHAN

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

"Ticket for Buffalo," said a young lady, opening her satchel and hunting for her portemonnaie. Then suddenly she exclaimed: "Oh, heavens! I've been robbed!"

"Two tickets to Buffalo," said a young man next in line.

The tickets were handed out, paid for and one of them slipped into the girl's hand before she had time to recover from the effect of her loss.

The young man caught up a suit case the girl had set down beside her and hurried her off to the train. Having found her a seat and racked her suit case, he was about to leave her when she made room for him beside her.

"Please let me know who you are and the price of the ticket," she said, "that I may send you the amount."

The young man took an old envelope from his pocket, wrote on it John Sparkline, with his address, and gave it to her. Then they fell to talking of how the thief could have got the pocketbook.

"There was but one moment," she said, "that it was out of my possession. I was sitting in the waiting room and a candy boy came along. I had small coins inside my glove, and I laid my bag down on the seat beside me while I paid for some candy."

"A candy boy is the most dangerous thing a girl can meet," said Mr. Sparkline dryly. The girl looked up at him, but as his face was perfectly serious she continued:

"A man sat in the seat next the one in which I had the satchel."

"What did he look like?"

"I haven't an idea."

"Complimentary."

"What do you mean?"

"You evidently weren't attracted by the man's appearance."

Again she looked at him.

"Are you sure you wouldn't recognize him again?"

"No. I wouldn't."

The couple talked for three hours, which seemed but one, and when they were within a short distance of their destination the young man turned to the girl and said impressively:

"Did you ever take the first step in crime?"

"No," she replied in astonishment.

"I have."

"Oh, heavens! Are you a criminal?"

"I stole your pocketbook."

"You stole my pocketbook?"

"Alas, I must confess it."

"But you have loaned me half as much as it contained."

"That came from remorse."

"But it seems to me the remorse came very quickly."

"I couldn't bear to see you troubled." She looked at him sidewise.

"I don't believe a word you say."

He took the portemonnaie from his pocket and handed it to her.

"Please don't have me arrested," he pleaded. "I am the child of poor but dishonest parents, who taught me to steal when I was a little boy."

"I thought you said something about a first crime."

"Did I? They taught me to lie too."

"Poor child!"

"When I saw you lay your bag on the seat between you and me I could not resist the temptation. Oh, why did you leave it there?"

"I'm so sorry. I didn't know I was tempting any one. Why don't you reform?"

"I haven't any one to reform me."

"But is it necessary that you should have some one for that? Can't you do it yourself?"

"No; I'm too far gone."

"What do you want any one to do to help you?"

"Why, I think that if I could see you once a week and you would encourage me I might pull through to a permanent reformation."

She thought awhile, then said:

"If you really think I can help you I shall be very glad to have you come every Saturday to tell me that you haven't picked any one's pocket during the week."

"Oh, how I thank you! I know you can save me and make an honest man of me."

"The only thing that troubles me," she said thoughtfully, "is that I must tell father, and I'm afraid he'll object."

"Tell him to go to Mr. William Evans, —— Locust street. He is interested in me and knows something to my advantage."

When they reached the station the penitent handed the girl out to a carriage, and she drove away, giving him an encouraging smile and promising to let him know the decision in his case. She told her father about it, and he gave her a scolding. But she forced him to make the inquiry of Mr. Evans. When he had done so he said to his daughter:

"Sis, the fool killer is coming this evening to carry you away."

"What do you mean, papa?"

"Evans, whom I have long known, tells me that this man is Jack Sparkline, his nephew, worth half a million and full of the Old Nick. I've given permission for the young rascal to call."

"But he did steal my purse."

"Of course he did, and with a view to making your acquaintance."

"Oh, my goodness gracious! And I told him he might come on Saturdays to assure me he hadn't picked a pocket during the week!"

Did you ever see a rosebush which—despite the most beneficent environment of soil—of sunshine—and of atmosphere,—seemed never to achieve a healthy growth.

A ton of manure will not help a plant that has a canker eating out its heart.

You must destroy the cause before you can remove the effect.

You cannot cure Dandruff and Baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and rubbing in vaseline, etc.

You must look to the cause of the trouble—it's a germ at the roots of your hair which causes it to fall out.

The question now seems to be whether the Republican "old guard" in this State can "come back." And, really we don't see how Mr. Morehead and Mr. Butler could register any sort of a protest against the return of the Old Guard of the party. The New Guard appears to have made a mess of it.

Of late years there has been an uncommon fatality among United States Senators, Senator Clay, of Georgia, being the last to answer the great and final roll call. In the next Senate there will be more new material than in a long time. It will probably be an opportune time to "reform" that body.

Jacob Riis is one Roosevelt idolater who refuses to be convinced. He declares that Roosevelt, as the leader of a progressive Republican party, will be hailed as the nation's savior in 1912. Of course Roosevelt won't do anything of the sort. In the past campaign he made such a spectacle of himself that it is inconceivable that he should regain the ground that he lost.

The death of Dr. Little, with his wife and children away from home, was especially sad. His passing in the midst of a large practice and with the best part of his career before him recalls the death of that other well beloved physician, Dr. J. E. Grimsley. Death is indeed no respecter of persons, but beckons with peremptory summons to those who, it seems, can least be spared.

Representative Democrats who have expressed themselves about the tariff reform program which the Democrats will have to offer to the country unite in saying that the Democrats will go about the problem with a due sense of its importance and will do nothing in haste and without due consideration. It is safe to say that a program will be presented which will appeal to the wisdom of the just and fair-minded men of the country.

The Philadelphia Public Ledger, discussing the success of Woodrow Wilson, says his success upon the high plane canvass proves that "the way to life up politics is to secure the services of the men who are capable of giving a lift." That is why Wake Democrats nominated Dr. Sikes, who, like Dr. Wilson is "a scholar in politics." We need more of them.—Raleigh News and Observer.

There is need for the Democratic party to keep on putting out as candidates clean, progressive, able men; men with no axes to grind and men who will serve the whole people. To this end, there will have to be more men willing to do party work without other reward than the approval of their conscience and the satisfaction of seeing their efforts rewarded in the form of good government by the men whom they helped to nominate and elect. Politics, in other words, must rest on some other foundation than the spoils.

Pennsylvania Democrats are trying to reorganize and it seems to be something of a job. Of the original Democratic party of four hundred thousand, there are left bearing the party name but 125,000. The other 275,000 have formed what they call the Keystone party. Now the straight Democrats are urging the Keystoners to come back into the Democratic party and the Keystoners are declaring that the straight Democrats should come into the Keystone party. As to which is the more sensible proposition, the Philadelphia Record most wisely says:

The Keystone Party is bound to be, like the City, Lincoln, William Penn and Philadelphia parties, but a temporary vehicle of opposition to gang rule. The Democratic party is a permament institution, the rank and file of whose members are equally opposed to the Penrose-McNichol-Vare sway over the government of Pennsylvania and Philadelphia. A large majority of the followers of the Keystone Party justify their adherence to that organization by their distrust of the present leaders of the Democracy. Why should they not join with the honest Democrats of the city and State in a reorganization which will command the confidence and respect of all sincere opponents of Republican misrule?

Practical men will take cognizance of the fact that there are 125,000 voters in Pennsylvania who will mark their ballots in the Democratic party square year in and year out with the same persistence that characterizes the voting of the disciplined troops of the Republican machine. Without these 125,000 votes no victory against the State machine can be won. The problem that confronts sincere reformers is the bringing about of co-operation between the dyed-in-the-wool Democrats and the independent Republicans. This involves such a reorganization of the Democracy as shall win back to its standard about 300,000 Democrats some of whom have got out of the habit of voting at all and some of whom have cast in their lot with the free-lance organizers of independent parties.

"The Record" believes that there are at this moment upward of 400,000 Pennsylvanians of voting age who believe in Democratic principles and whose union in a purged Democratic organization, with the assistance of decent independent Republicans, would be fatal to the continuance of machine rule. Now is the time for a Democratic house-cleaning that will enable Democratic Democrats, Keystone Democrats and stay-at-home Democrats to get together.

The Democrats in the Keystone party have shown a craven disposition. They have shown that they have no stomach for a fight. It is disgusting to see dissatisfied Democrats sulking in their tents or running off to some new party on the pretext that their party has gone to the bad. A much more courageous and manly course would be to go to work to purify the party or, if they don't want to do that, be independent in politics and not seek to complicate matters by giving aid and comfort to a new party which in the nature of the case can have only a temporary existence. Dissatisfied Democrats must not be afraid of a big task. Nothing worth while was ever attained without a hard and often a long drawn out fight.

His Choice.

"Yes," said the specialist, as he stood at the bedside of the miser millionaire, "I can cure you."

"But what will it cost?" came feebly from the lips of the sick man.

The specialist made a swift mental calculation. "Ninety-five dollars," was his answer.

"Can't you shade your figure a little?" wailed the other. "The undertaker's bid is much less."—Lippincott's.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh,, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

HE WITNESSED THE BATTLE OF GUILFORD COURT HOUSE

And the Charlotte Democrat of June 22, 1874, Had An Article About Him.

Maj. Jos. M. Morehead, president of the Guilford Battle Ground Company, has received the following letter and enclosure from Mr. A. B. Andrews, Jr., of Raleigh:

"Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 11, 1910.

"Major Joseph M. Morehead,
"Guilford Battle Ground,
"Greensboro, N. C.

"My Dear Sir:—

"Looking over the files of some bound volumes of newspapers at the State Library, I came across the issue of the Charlotte Democrat of June 22, 1874, whch contained the enclosed item in regard to William Ross, who was then living near Bloomington, Indiana, aged one hundred and fifteen years, and was an eye witness of the Battle of Guilford Court House.

"Thinking you might be interested to see the item I have taken the liberty of copying it and herewith enclose you the same.

"With kindnest and best regards, I am
"Yours very truly,
"A. B. ANDREWS, JR."

Copied from third page of Charlotte Democrat, June 22, 1874.

A North Carolinian now living in Indiana who saw the Battle of Guilford Court House.

To the Editor of the Louisville (Ky.) Journal:

Having noticed in several journals articles claiming for the various localities the honor of having in their midst the "oldest voter," I concluded to put in the claims of Monroe county, Indiana.

Near Bloomington lives our old friend, Wm. Ross, who according to his own account and the family record, was born at Guilford Court House, North Carolina, May 17, 1759; consequently is one hundred and fifteen years old the 17th of last month.

Father Ross is in splendid health, visits Bloomington frequently during the pleasant weather of summer, kills squirrels with his rifle, chops wood, works his own garden, and occasionally follows the plow, and says he feels as young as he did half a century ago.

Father Ross was not in the Revolutionary War, but was an eye witness of the Battle of Guilford Court House, North Carolina, and made no claim to having been a member of the military family of General Washington, or even of having seen the general. He has voted for ninety four years, but does not remember how many votes he has cast within that time, but must have been well on to two hundred times; and has invariably voted the regular old Democratic ticket, and never fails to pay his taxes. He is certainly the oldest man in the United States, if not in the world.

Mrs. Ross Goes To Nashville.

Mrs. F. H. E. Ross, who has been employed in the life department of the Southern Life and Trust Company since it was founded, has resigned and yesterday went to Nashville, Tenn., where she will enter the service of the Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, South, as assistant treasurer in the office of headquarters which are located in that city.

Miss Dashaway—"I am a great admirer of small feet." Jack Potts—"So am I. There isn't so much of them to get cold."

OIL PORTRAIT OF GEN. W. B. DAVIES

Excellent Likeness of Famous North Carolinian Presented to State—Pill-Roller Aspirants Standing Examination—New Member State Board of Agriculture.

Raleigh, Nov. 15.—Governor Kitchin today commissioned H. D. Edgerton, of Louisburg, a member of the state board of agriculture to succed Hon. Ashley Horne, of Clayton, who resigns on account of having been elected to the General Assembly as a member of the lower house.

This afternoon in the Senate chamber there was the presentation to the state by the North Carolina Society Sons of the Revolution of an oil portrait of Gen. William B. Davies, Revolutionary soldier, special envoy to the court of France, Governor of North Carolina and "Father of the North Carolina State University." The presentation was through an address on his career by James O. Carr, of Wilmington, Attorney General T. W. Bickett accepting it on the part of the State. The painting is by Jacques Busbee, of Raleigh, and is pronounced an excellent likeness.

The state board of examiners of the North Carolina Pharmacutical Association is in session here examining fifty nine applicants for licenses to practice in this state. The examination will continue through tomorrow and is being held in the representatives' hall of the state house. All members of the board are here including E. V. Zoeller, Tarboro, chairman; W. F. Hancock, Oxford, secretary; I. W. Rose, Rocky Mount; C. B. Miller, Goldsboro; W. W. Horne, Fayetteville.

An order is made by the postal authorities by which Raleigh Union station will have three instead of two transfer mail clerks on duty the time being divided into three eight-hour shifts daily. The new clerk is to be J. W. Graves, who has for some time been a railway mail clerk on the Seaboard from Norfolk south. The other two are Col. R. L. Leinster and R. E. Lumsden.

The secretary of state charters the King-Stewart Livery and Sales Stable, of Greensboro, capital $50,000 with authority for general livery business, for farming and stockraising. J. L. King is the largest stockholder.

"He's All Right; He Has Money in the Bank"

How many times has each of us heard this or similar expression! If we go around much we hear it nearly every day. And yet so few of us really take it to heart.

If a young man gets into trouble, a bank account will pull him out. If he gets sick or injured it will pay the doctor's or druggist's bills. If he wants to buy a few shares of stock in the Company for which he works, and thereby strengthen his position, he can do it. All these things, and a hundred more, can be done with a snug bank account—but one must SAVE in order to have that account.

Better start today and save your money. We pay interest at the rate of 4 per cent, and assure the absolute safety of every dollar deposited here.

HOW TO CURE RHEUMATISM

It Is An Internal Disease And Requires An Internal Remedy.

The cause of rheumatism and kindred diseases is an excess of uric acid in the blood. To cure this terrible disease this acid must be expelled and the system so regulated that no more acid will be formed in excessive quantities. Rheumatism is an internal disease and requires an internal remedy. RUBBING with Oils and Liniments WILL NOT CURE, affords only temporary relief at best, causes you to delay the proper treatment, and allows the malady to get a firmer hold on you. Liniments may ease the pain, but they will no more cure Rheumatism than paint will change the fiber of rotten wood.

Science has at last discovered a perfect and complete cure, which is called Rheumacide. Tested in hundreds of cases, it has effected the most marvelous cures; we believe it will cure you. Rheumacide gets at the joints from the inside, sweeps the poisons out of the system, tones up the stomach, regulates the liver and kidneys and makes you well all over. Rheumacide strikes the root of the disease and removes its cause. This splendid remedy is sold by druggists and dealers generally at 50c. and $1 a bottle. In Tablet form at 25c. and 50c. a package. Write to Bobbitt Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md. Booklet free. Tablets sent by mail.

For sale by Howard Gardner, Druggist.

Don't think that piles can't be cured. Thousands of obstinate cases have been cured by Doan's Ointment. 50 cents at any drug store.

PLATINIZED GLASS.

It Produces an Odd and a Tricky Kind of Mirror.

Platinized glass consists of a piece of glass coated with an exceedingly thin layer of a liquid charged with platinum and then raised to a red heat. The platinum becomes united to the glass in such a way as to form an odd kind of mirror.

The glass has not really lost its transparency, and yet if one places it against a wall and looks at it he sees his image as in an ordinary looking glass. But when light is allowed to come through the glass from the other side, as when it is placed in a window, it appears perfectly transparent, like ordinary glass.

By constructing a window of platinized glass one could stand close behind the panes in an unilluminated room and behold clearly everything going on outside, while passersby looking at the window would behold only a fine mirror or set of mirrors in which their own figures would be reflected while the person inside remained invisible.

In France various tricks have been contrived with the aid of this glass. In one a person seeing what appears to be an ordinary mirror approaches it to gaze upon himself. A sudden change in the mechanism sends light through the glass from the back, whereupon it instantly becomes transparent, and the startled spectator finds himself confronted by some grotesque figure that had been hidden behind the glass.—Harper's Weekly.

Saves an Iowa Man's Life.

The very grave seemed to yawn before Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Iowa, when, after seven weeks in the hospital, four of the best physicians gave him up. Then was shown the marvelous curative power of Electric Bitters. For, after eight months of frightful suffering from liver trouble and yellow jaundice, getting no help from other remedies or doctors, five bottles of this matchless medicine completely cured him. Its positively guaranteed for Stomach, Liver or Kidney troubles and never disappoints. Only 50 c. at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

A "LEARNED BLACKSMITH."

Knight of the Forge in Pennsylvania Has Been Elected to Congress.

Philadelphia Press.

He is Robert E. Lee, a Democrat, of Pottsville, Pa., who was declared elected to Congress from the Twelfth Pennsylvania, or Schuylkill district, last Tuesday night at the conclusion of the official count in court. His Republican opponent was Robert D. Heaton, of Ashton, Pa. Mr. Lee, who won by a plurality of only 51 votes, was known as the "blacksmith candidate" because of the fact that in his youth he learned the blacksmith trade and continued at the anvil for ten years. His employer says Lee is the best blacksmith in the United States, and that he is sure he will deliver some sledge-hammer blows in Congress. Mr. Lee is shown at work in the shop in this view.

Hexamethylenetetramine.

Is the name of a German chemical, one of the many valuable ingredients of Foley's Kidney Remedy. Hexamethylenetetramine is recognized by medical text books and authorities as a uric acid solvent and anti-septic for the urine. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy promptly at the first sign of kidney trouble and avoid a serious malady. Howard Gardner.

The Waiter's Tip.

"How are the reed birds today, waiter?"

"I never saw finer sparrows in my life, sir."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

A Bismarck Story.

Lord Ampthill once found Bismarck reading Andersen's story on the "Ugly Duckling," which relates how a duck hatched a swan's egg and how the cygnet was jeered at by his putative brethren, the ducklings, until one day a troop of lordly swans floating down the river saluted him as one of their race. "Ah," observed Bismarck, "it was a long time before my poor mother could be persuaded that in hatching me she had not produced a goose."

The Sacrifice.

Mrs. Richleigh (scornfully)—I wish you had more brains, Ferdinand, instead of so much money. Ferdinand (unmoved)—I did once, dear, but it took all of them to get the money.—Widow.

The manly part is to do with might and main what you can do.—Emerson.

It is really wonderful how quickly Vick's Croup and Pneumonia Salve breaks up a cold, croup or pneumonia symptoms. Just rub it on. Keep a jar ready.

Polly—"Mollie's fiance is awfully conceited." Dolly—"In what way?" Polly—"He has never told her how unworthy he was of her."

Good Results Always Follow.

Some of us could wrap our good resolutions in cotton, and even then they would get broken.

"It Cured My Back"

"For twenty-nine years I have been at intervals a great sufferer from rheumatism. During that time, no telling how many gallons of the various kinds of liniments and oils I have used and with but little relief. Recently, I was confined to my bed helpless. I tried Sloan's Liniment and used it with such satisfactory results that I sent for two large bottles, and I have up to this time used about half a 50 cent bottle with splendid success."—James Hyde, Beebe, White County, Ark.

Got Ease in Less Than Ten Minutes.

Mr. James E. Alexander, of North Harpswell, Me., writes:—"I am a horseshoer and subject to many strains in my back and hips which has brought on rheumatism in the sciatic nerve. I had it so bad one night when sitting in my chair, that I had to jump on my feet to get relief. I at once applied your to the affected part and in less than ten minutes it was perfectly easy. I think it is the best of all Liniments."

Sloan's Liniment does not need any rubbing. It's a powerful penetrant. Try it for Rheumatism, Sciatica, Sprains, Chest Pains, and Sore Throat. It gives almost instant relief.

A MAGIC CLUB.

Curious Decoy Used by the Native Fishermen of Hawaii.

"Lau melomelo" is the name of a decoy used by the native fishermen of Hawaii. It is made of the hardest wood to be found on the islands and is carved and rubbed till it assumes the shape of a club with a little knob at the smaller end, to which the line is tied.

The club is from one to three feet long. A village sorcerer performs certain rites over it over a sacred fire. After this is done the club is magic, and the fisherman must be extremely careful of it. If a woman should step over it or enter a canoe in which it lies the club would lose all its power and would be useless ever afterward.

After the club has been charmed the fisherman mixes candlenut and cocoanut meat, bakes it and ties the mixture in a wrapper of cocoanut fiber.

At the fishing grounds the club is covered with the oily juice of the stuff and is then lowered carefully to the bottom. The scent of the baked nut meat attracts certain kinds of fish, which soon gather and begin to nibble at the club. As soon as enough fish are around the decoy a small bag shaped net is lowered very gently until its mouth is just over the club. The latter is then pulled up carefully and cunningly till it is within the bag. The fish are so eager for the stuff with which the club is covered that they follow it into the net without fear. As soon as all the fish are in it a fisherman dives and closes the mouth of the net, whereupon the rest haul it up quickly.

Both Speedy and Effective.

This indicates the action of Foley Kidney Pills as S. Parsons, Battle Creek, Mich., illustrates: "I have been afflicted with a severe case of kidney and bladder trouble for which I found no relief until I used Foley Kidney Pills. These cured me entirely of all my ailments. I was troubled with backaches and severe shooting pains with annoying urinary irregularities. The steady use of Foley Kidney Pills rid me entirely of all my former troubles. They have my highest recommendation." Howard Gardner.

When They Meet Again.

"This is awkward. I flirted with a young man at the seashore, and we both pretended to be rich. Now I find he lives in our city."

"But you needn't see him if you don't want to."

"I can't well get out of it. It seems he collects the payments on our piano."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS

PAZO OINTMENT is guaranteed to cure any case of Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days or money refunded. 50c.

Hubbubs—"Do you own your own home?" Subbubs—"Well, I thought I did till the new cook came."

Will Promote Beauty.

Women desiring beauty get wonderful help from Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It banishes pimples, skin eruptions, sores and boils. It makes the skin soft and velvety. It glorifies the face. DONKEY AS SERVANT.

Actress Gives Picturesque Affair For Vera Morris and Horsemen.

New York American.

With Mrs. Jackson Gouraud and Melville Ellis doing a danse des Apache; with a real live donkey bringing in the demi tasse de cafe noir; with Miss Valeska Surratt as hostess in her Oriental apartment, in 341 West Eighty-fifth street; Miss Vera Morris as the motif and with Walter Winans and other visiting horse showmen as guests, there is no doubt left, in the words of "among those present," that the actress, in whose home the function took place last night, is an adept in the art of entertaining.

Everybody danced; even the donkey tilted a bit with the coffee, but nobody seemed to mind if the cups lacked full measure, for there was no end of merriment.

Miss Morris was "wonderful," as Miss Surratt expressed it, in a vivid shade of Irish-green satin combined with silver. Mrs. Gouraud was attired in an Egyptian costume of cerise and gold, with blue chiffon overdrapery. Her pearls were arranged in festoons upon the low-cut bodice and in her auburn hair. Miss Surratt wore a beautiful gown of blue and silver.

Mr Otto Paul, Milwaukee, Wis., says: Foley's Honey and Tar is still more than the best. He writes us, "All those that bought it think it is the best for coughs and colds they ever had and I think it is still more than the best. Our baby had a bad cold and it cured him in one day. Please accept thanks." Howard Gardner.

No Reason for Pride.

"We won't print any such stuff as that!" said the editor loftily as he handed back the manuscript.

"Well, you needn't be so haughty about it," retorted the irregular contributor. "You're not the only one who won't print it."—Tit-Bits.

Dressed in "Black and Yellow."

Not "Football Colors" but the color of the carton containing Foley's Honey and Tar the best and safest remedy for all coughs and colds. Do not accept a substitute but see that you get the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar in a yellow carton with black letters. Howard Gardner.

Cause and Effect.

"What went wrong with your auto while your wife was away?" we asked of our acquaintance.

"I did," he replied, sadly.—Life.

For More Than Three Decades

Foley's Honey and Tar has been a household favorite for coughs, colds, and ailments of the throat, chest and lungs. contains no poiates. Sold by Howard Gardner.

No man feels that he is old enough to die, and the longer he lives the more he is imbued with this idea.

Blobbs—"I tell you, he's as honest as the day is long." Slobbs—"Yes; but the days are getting shorter."

Eclipse of Moon Tonight.

There will be a total eclipse of the moon tonight, visible throughout the United States. The moon will enter the shadow, Washington time, at 5:35 p. m., the total eclipse beginning at 6:46 p. m. The total eclipse ends at 7:38 p. m., after the earth hereabouts has been shadowed for nearly an hour. A Case of Mistaken Identity.

Yesterday The Telegram had an item about a gentleman catching an opossum. Mr. R. Y. Skenes claims that it was one of a number of "kitten" opossums that he caught at Reedy Fork and turned aloose. But "Bob" is wrong, for the opossum that The Telegram wrote about was a full grown fellow, fat and juicy.

Make Up Your "List"

Christmas is drawing very near. No use waiting until the eleventh hour. Make up your list today. Jot down the names of all to whom you intend to make presents. That done, mark down what you desire to give them.

Then select every day one or two presents. A small deposit will secure them for you. They will be laid aside until the day before Christmas.

A look at the show windows and the store proper will aid in making selections. Come whenever you like, and as often as you please. We will be very glad to show you around. You will never be urged to buy.

You will probably give at least one watch. By buying it here you will save enough so that for the difference you can secure a very good chain to attach to it.

There will surely be some one to whom you will want to give a ring, to others bracelets, lockets and scarf pins, brooches and studs. For still others you will want little trinkets in silver novelties.

The One to Pay.

When she was Lady Randolph Churchill, Mrs. George Cornwallis-West consented to electioneer for Mr. Ashmead-Bartlett in his first parliamentary campaign. Mr. Ashmead-Bartlett was married to the Baroness Burdett-Coutts, a very rich woman, who was nearly forty years his senior. Lady Randolph, with her beauty and charms, did splendid work for the candidate.

To a group of farmers she said one day:

"Won't you promise me to vote for Mr. Ashmead-Bartlett?"

"My lady" said a red faced farmer, with a chuckle, "we'll all vote for him if every vote 'll be paid for with a kiss."

"Thank you very much," said Lady Randolph. "Your offer is accepted. I'll send for the Baroness Burdett-Coutts at once."

Deserted Their Towns.

So late as the end of the seventeenth century the inhabitants of Ceylon were in the habit of deserting their towns. Their customs are described in the narrative of Captain Robert Knox, who for nineteen years, from 1660 to 1679, was a captive among them. He speaks of several towns as lying desolate owing to the fact that their inhabitants had forsaken them. This they did if many of them fell sick, and two or three died soon after one another, thinking that it was a visitation of the evil one. Some of them came back when they thought the evil spirits had departed.

A Queer Creature.

Queer that while the male seal is a bull and the female a cow their youngster is not called a calf, but a pup.

Why "seal fisheries," too, when the seal is not a fish?

And why should the seal's breeding place be styled a rookery?

It looks as if this strange creature is only a fish in common parlance while at sea. On land (or ice) he is classed popularly with animals or birds.—Exchange.

Gratitude.

Kind Lady — My poor man, what would you do with the money if I gave you a penny? Tired Hobo—Madam, I'd buy a picture postcard an' write yer a note o' thanks.—Cleveland Leader.

To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die.—Campbell.

IT IS ALL RIGHT

to ask a friend to do you a favor when it is impossible to secure the favor in any other way. But why ask a friend to go on your bond as surety when the Greensboro Loan & Trust Company can give better security than an individual at no extra cost for its faithful discharge of its duty as a trustee or executor or administrator. Why should you sign a bond by which your "heirs, executors, administrators and assigns are held and firmly bound" to pay for the default of others; perhaps after your death, every dollar of your estate? Tell your friend not to burden you with such a grave responsibility. Let the Greensboro Loan & Trust Company become responsible.

Talk this over with us—it will assist you.
